

NAWBO SVV Raffle Guidelines

Raffles prizes are welcome from everyone; membership not required. NAWBO SVV is a non-profit organization and appreciates your contributions. To donate for our upcoming raffles, please contact our raffle coordinator, LeAnne Leman at raffles@nawbosvv.org, with your generous donation.

Guidelines for submitting your raffle donation prize:

1. Raffle prizes are accepted three weeks prior to an event, so that the name of the donor and the donor's business can be included on our website, in our email blast and at the event. This is a free service in thanks for the donation and is not guaranteed, but rather complementary in gratitude by NAWBO-SVV.
2. A set number of prizes are accepted for each month's luncheon. If more prizes are received than required, the donated raffle prizes will be kept for the next luncheon.
3. Last minute raffle prizes will not be included in that day's raffle, but will gladly be accepted for the next month's luncheon. Exceptions will be made for featured sponsors or speakers only.
4. For each donated item, please include a brief description including your name, your business, and the dollar value of your raffle donation prize.
(i.e. Bonnie Matthews, Matthews Business Publication, One free ad, $150
OR Bonnie Matthews, Matthews Business Publication, Dinner for Two at specific restaurant, $60).
5. All donated raffle prizes must be a true gift with no strings attached (monetarily or otherwise). A donated raffle prize will have no purchase required now or after acceptance of the initial prize. (No raffle prizes for 50% off, etc).
6. Raffle prizes donated do not have to be directly related to your business (i.e., a therapist can donate a vase. The donation does not have to be related to therapy or the donors business.)
7. If you win your own donated raffle prize at the event, you will receive the next prize and another number will be called. If you donated the last prize and your number is called, we thank you for your donation and another number will be called.
8. Due to the time frame and in respect to our donators, we ask that if you receive a raffle prize you personally can not use, please feel free to quietly give it to another person here this afternoon. Or, feel free to share it with friends, family or those with whom you work. By sharing these wonderful gifts donated by members and non-members alike, you share the donor's information, promote their business and recognize them for their generosity of donating to NAWBO Sedona Verde Valley."
